

BILL TO PREVENT CANDIDATES FROM BUYING DRINKS

Ciffen Presents Measure to Purify Elections---State Police Bill Causing Considerable Discussion.

(By Special Correspondence.)
CARSON, March 10.—At this writing, 5 p. m., the interest is intense over the pending fight over the state police bill in the assembly. It was called late this afternoon, but before the battle began an adjournment was taken until 7:30 this evening. As has before been explained in this correspondence, the point in controversy is whether the organization shall be emasculated as is provided by the assembly bill, or strengthened as it is by a bill which has passed the senate. Both measures are now before the assembly.

Giffen's bill to "purify elections," though introduced several days ago, attracted no attention until today, when it was favorably reported from committee. It is something savage, as the following clause demonstrates:

"Section 4. A candidate for any state, district, county, township or city office shall not for the purpose of influencing the vote or votes of any elector or electors, directly or indirectly, make any promise that he will do or not do any particular act in the event of his election, except that stated in the platform of the party which he represents, or made by public declaration through some newspaper, or other means sufficient to acquaint the public with such promise; treat, or give or cause to be given any refreshment to any elector or electors; make any donation to any person, organization or institution; make any promise of office or reward to any elector or electors in the event of his election. The doing of any of the acts herein forbidden shall be presumed to be for the purpose of influencing the vote or votes of electors, and the burden of proving the contrary shall be upon the candidate."

Comment would be superfluous, a case of painting a lily, blacking a pot.

The resolution removing the capitol to Goldfield was today indefinitely postponed in the assembly.

These bills were passed: Levying an inheritance tax, creating an inspector of land pests, and regulating stock brands.

In committee of the whole the senate bill providing for the recodification of state laws by the members of the supreme court was substituted for the assembly measure creating a commission for the purpose, and recommending its passage. Final vote was not taken.

In the senate a bill was introduced providing for the compilation of supreme court decisions and one taking from the control of the secretary of state the state library and putting it in the hands of a librarian, to be appointed by the supreme court.

These bills were passed: Pyne's regulating the election of United States senators by direct vote, assembly bills providing for issuing industrial school bonds, and making justices of the peace ex-officio coroners, besides a number of less importance.

A letter was read from Mrs. Zeb Kendall, a gracious, graceful acknowledgment of the resolution recently adopted anent the birth of her son, and conveying the information that the request that he be named Abraham Lincoln Kendall had been complied with.

Much interest is aroused over the bank commission investigation and many rumors relative thereto are current.

NYE COUNTY MAKES BORROW OF $10,000

Complete Arrangements Whereby Large Sum is Borrowed from the Nevada First National Bank---County Bills Will Be Paid Today.

County Commissioner Sam F. Lindsay returned from Carson yesterday, where he has been before the state board of finance, asking that body to grant permission to Nye county to borrow money for the purpose of conducting the affairs of the county. The board of finance is composed of Governor Dickerson, Attorney General Stoddard and State Comptroller J. Eggers, and they readily granted Mr. Lindsay's request.

Yesterday afternoon the board of county commissioners met and after considering the applications from several banks of this state, made the necessary arrangements with the Nevada First National bank of this city for an emergency loan of $10,000. The following letter received from the bank is self-explanatory:

"March 11, 1909.
Honorable Board of County Commissioners of Nye County, State of Nevada.

"Gentlemen: We have had under consideration your request for an emergency loan for the sum of $10,000 and have given the matter serious consideration.

"While it is contrary to the policy of national banks to make loans for a period longer than six months, and while we are able to employ our funds by lending on demand notes at the usual rate of interest of this community, 1 per cent per month or 12 per cent per annum, we fully realize that an emergency exists and that Nye county, by reason of having its funds tied up in the Nye and Ormsby County bank, is in an embarrassing position, and that the officers of the county are not only being caused considerable annoyance by reason of being unable to collect their salaries, but are hampered in the proper performance of their duties.

"We have also taken into consideration that it is the duty of a bank, when able, through a sense of public spirit, to assist the county wherein it is doing business, when such an emergency exists.

"Under the circumstances, therefore, we hereby agree to make Nye county such a loan in the sum of $10,000, payable on or before the fifteenth day of December, 1909, with interest at the rate of 8 per cent per annum. We desire to state that the reduction in the usual rate of interest is made solely by reason of the conditions hereinbefore stated.

"We are informed that a bill has been introduced in the state legislature to permit Nye county to issue bonds for the purpose of refunding the floating indebtedness of the county. At such time as you are properly authorized to issue these bonds, we will be pleased to take up with you negotiations looking to the purchase of the same.

"Respectfully,

"NEVADA FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF TONOPAH.
"R. T. Harris, cashier."

The money was placed in the county treasury and today, all who have accounts against the county will receive their warrants.

The board will hold a final meeting this morning and will then adjourn for the month.

MORE TEAMS ARE ADDED TO THE SHIPPING LIST

BROKEN HILLS CO. PLACES A THIRD TEAM ON THE ROAD YESTERDAY.

"The Broken Hills company added another team to its shipping list yesterday," stated J. W. Goodwin, of that camp, last evening, "and later in the week the fourth team will leave Goldfield for the same purpose. They are sacking 100 sacks daily from the two surface trenches. In one trench they have fourteen feet of ore that will go $322 to the ton and in the other trench are sacking from a ledge that is from seven to nine feet in width that will go better than $100.

"Shortly before leaving the camp I had a talk with Tom Murphy, who is managing the property, and he informed me that the present force of men was the largest that had been employed at the mine since the present company took hold of it."

WEATHER MAN PREDICTS CHANGE IN CLIMATE

HE WHO PEERS INTO THE FUTURE SEES SOME STARTLING CHANGES.

"According to the almanac, the dope sheet and private advices from the head mogul of the weather business, the climate in and around Tonopah should experience a change for the warmer and should start today."

Thusly spoke J. C. Piercy, official in charge of the Tonopah weather bureau, last evening after being approached by several young people who are anxious for those nice summer evenings to make their appearance.

Continuing, Mr. Piercy said: "The temperature a year ago was 55 degrees, while that of today reached but 36. As a baseball enthusiast I will do all in my power to make father time step lively and hurry on with the summer."

SAD FATE OF MAN WHO SWORE AT HIS WIFE

"EXCUSE ME, MR. RUSSELL," SAYS THE JUDGE—HANDS OUT TWENTY DAYS.

James Russell, a colored gent, accumulated a pay-day jag Wednesday night, and in the early hours of the morning started home with the avowed intention of beating his wife, just for the purpose of showing her he still loved her. Mrs. Russell met her master and lord at the door and Mr. Russell, apparently seeing two Mrs. Russells waiting to receive him, turned loose a flood of swear words that fairly shook the windows in the houses nearby and shocked the residents therein.

As a result Mr. Russell occupied the mourners' bench in the justice court yesterday and with an "Excuse me, Mr. Judge," started to explain why he had disturbed the peace of his wife. His explanations were not sufficient, and for the next twenty days the inmates of the county jail will have the pleasure of Mistah Russell's company.

Moral—Don't swear at your wife.

ARRESTED FOR VAGRANCY WANTS A JURY TRIAL

WILLIAM KOEFER WILL ONCE MORE APPEAR IN THE JUSTICE COURT.

William Koefer was arrested Wednesday night on the charge of vagrancy and will have his trial by a jury this afternoon in the justice court. The officers allege that Koefer has been standing around the gambling tables of several places in this city, and mooching small change from the players. He has been up in the justice court twice in the last year on the same charge, but was acquitted both times.
